Missionary Film Slated At Foursquare

A story of the Brazilian missionary crusade will be presented in a 50-minute color picture, "Lift Up Your Eyes," will be shown Sunday night at 7:30 p.m., at the Torrance Foursquare Church, Arlington and Sepulveda Blvd.

The film is produced by the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel, under the supervision of the Rev. Harold Chalfant, missionary field representative.

The story, revolving around the nationalists' tent revival program instigated a few years ago by Rev. and Mrs. Harold Williams, whose Foursquare mission activities are highlighted in the film, is a major production in color photography, according to Rev. James P. Lowen, pastor of the local church. It shows converted doctors, lawyers and businessmen conducting evangelistic appeals according to the New Testament pattern in more than 50 under-the-big-top gospel crusades.

This second in a series of the spot factual films was produced by the Foursquare organization to present its extensive missionary program.

Anza Baptists Celebrate 1st Anniversary

The Anza Ave. Baptist Church celebrated its first anniversary Sunday with a fellowship dinner at the church, Valerie and Spencer Sts.

Formerly known as the West Torrance Baptist Mission, the church now is making plans to build a sanctuary, chapel, educational plant, and fellowship hall. At the anniversary celebration, the growth of the church was cited. Meetings started in Bob Mann's garage, 5028 Carmelyst St., about a year ago, and later moved to Carl Steele School when new members overflowed the small structure. It recently moved to its new location.

According to the pastor, the Rev. C. D. Scott, more than 100 children now are enrolled in Sunday.

'LOVE' WILL BE SUBJECT ON SUNDAY

How the understanding of God's inexhaustible goodness enables us to meet every day needs will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon on "Love."

Scriptural selections will include these verses, from Ezekiel (34:11, 14), "For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out... I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel."

The Golden Text from Jeremiah reads, "The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee" (31:3).
